The seal of the American College of Dentists is a circular emblem. It features two figures, a man and a woman, standing on either side of a large scroll. The scroll contains text in a stylized, possibly ancient or symbolic, script. Below the scroll is a large, stylized insect, resembling a fly or a bee, with its wings spread. The outer ring of the seal contains the text "COLLEGE OF DENTISTS" at the top and "CURANDORUM HUMANITATIS CAUSA" at the bottom, separated by dots. The entire seal is rendered in a light, monochromatic color against the dark background of the cover.
