The seal of the American College of Dentists is a circular emblem. The outer ring contains the text "COLLEGE OF DENTISTS" at the top and "CAUSA" at the bottom. Inside this ring, the Latin phrase "CURANDORUM HUMANIT" is visible. The central part of the seal depicts two figures, a man and a woman, standing and holding a large scroll. The scroll contains several lines of text, including "30A633" and "3028155837". Below the figures is a large, stylized insect, possibly a fly or a beetle, with its wings spread. The entire seal is rendered in a light color against the dark background of the cover.
