The seal of the American College of Dentists is a large, circular emblem. It features two figures, a man and a woman, standing on either side of a central scroll. The scroll contains text in a stylized, possibly ancient or symbolic, script. Below the scroll is a large, detailed illustration of a butterfly. The outer ring of the seal contains the text "COLLEGE OF DENTISTS" at the top and "CURANDORUM HUMANITATIS CAUSA" at the bottom. The entire seal is rendered in a light, monochromatic color against the dark background of the cover.
